ABOUT THE GENOA PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT (PUBLIC BODY)

The Genoa Public Library (also known as GPLD) serves a community of over 5,200 residents, as well as reciprocal borrowers from the PrairieCat Library system, along with any and all visitors who pass through the library's doors. Our motto is, "Your place to learn, create, and connect."

The Genoa Public Library is a district library established under the Illinois Public Library District Act, 75 ILCS 16. The library is governed by an elected Board of Trustees consisting of seven members. Trustees are elected to serve six-year terms without compensation. Trustees bear fiduciary responsibility to the taxpayers of the Genoa Public Library District. The Library Director, hired by the Board of Trustees, manages the day-to-day operations of the library.

We are required to report to and be answerable to the Illinois State Library located in Springfield, Illinois. Its members are: State Librarian Alexi Giannoulas, Director of the State Library, and various other staff.

OUR MISSION

The Genoa Public Library District supports our community by cultivating personal and intellectual growth.
